BROADWAY NATIONAL PLACED IN CHARGE OF EXAMINER.

the Results of the Failure the John P. Squire Company of Cambridge.

AND CREDITORS MAY BE PAID DOL-LAR FOR DOLLAR IN TIME.

Other Firms Connected with the Squire Company Forced to Make Assignments.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 16.-As a result of the failure of the John P. Squire Company (corporation), of Cambridge, for $3,000,000, which was announced late yesterday afternoon, the Broadway National Bank here, in which the Squires were largely interested, did not open its doors to-day, and a notice at the entrance stated that the affairs of the bank were in the hands of the controller of the currency. It did not take long for the news of the trouble to circulate widely, and all sorts of wild rumors were set affoat. These reports made mention of other banks with which the Squires were connected, and one or two instituance. For an hour these conditions prevailed, but as one after the other of the subside, and by 1 o'clock affairs apparently had resumed their normal state.

Members of the clearing house committee refused to discuss the Broadway Bank question to-day. It seemed to be the opinion among the bankers that no important failures would follow the closing of the

The city of Boston was a depositor in the Broadway National, and $97,000 of city money is tied up. The commonwealth of Massachusetts also had a deposit in the bank, amounting to about $50,000. The Broadway National Bank is located at the corner of Milk and Arch streets. Doswell C. Downer is its president, and Frank O. Squire, president and manager of the John P. Squire Company, is vice president.

When it became known yesterday that the Squire firm was in trouble, the clearing house took up the question of giving ascompleted until last evening, it was detion with Controller Dawes, with the result that the institution was turned over to they are keeping secret. The Brants claim the controller, Bank Examiner Wing being they are able to prove alibis. designated as temporary receiver.

The Broadway National Bank was incorporated in 1853. Its last statement, presented at the close of business, Dec. 9, showed the following figures:

Capital
Loans	,995,000
Circulation	45,000
Individual deposits2	348,000
Due banks	131,000
Due from reserve agents	274,000
Expenses, clearing house	273,000
	168,000
Five per cent. funds	2,250
Legal tender	158,000
Specie	113,000
Besides President Downer and Vice

ident Squire, the directors of the bank include Henry L. Lawrence, John J. Graham and Frank W. Downer.

F. H. Curtiss, cashier of the Broadway National Bank, said to-day that the institution was solvent, and he added that there actually was $600,000 in cash in the bank's vaults this morning. Mr. Curtiss also said that all the heavy depositors had expressed their confidence in the institution, and had agreed to allow the deposits to remain there. The bank officers stated that the way.

There was considerable talk during the of the banks in the city. The agitations were heard at police headquarters, and squads were promptly sent to various parts of the bank district to prevent crowds from gathering, but there was no need of their presence. One bank, in fact, objected to having patrolmen stand near its place of Temporary Receiver Wing said to-day: "The future of the Broadway National Bank depends on the decision of the controller of the currency at Washington. I am in charge of the assets, and after making a thorough examination, I shall make ton. The controller will examine the report, and then probably appoint a permabe I am not at liberty to state. I was appointed temporary receiver last night. bank it was thought best to close the doors and treat all depositors alike. We shall not be able to come to the relief of those who have been doing business through the bank until the controller makes his deci-

• Frank O. and Fred F. Squire and their attorneys, with Herman W. Chaplin, assignee, were busy to-day upon the affairs these nearly a score of people suffered of the Squire corporation, the assignment | triffing bruise of which was announced yesterday. Very little new information could be gleaned to-

Assignee Chaplin states that the assign- | tected by insurance. ment provides that the present assignee shall withdraw in favor of such other assignee, if any, as the creditors may decide on, and that a meeting of the crediters would be called as soon as notices could be mailed to them. "The creditors, he said, "are chiefly banks in New England and in New York State. One of the members of the Squire firm, referring to the assignment and the closing of the Broadway National Bank, said to-day: "While I cannot state just how seriously our assignment may affect the United States senator to-day announced Broadway Bank, I am justified in saying that the withdrawal of F. J. Blake, of that the bank and all our creditors will be

These corporations affiliated with John P. Squire & Co., which had not assigned previously, voted this evening to assign to H. Lake-Chaplin Provision Company, of Bur- tor and Eaton for speaker. It is also stated lington, Vt.; the New Hampshire Provision Company, of Concord, N. H.; John H. Towle & Co. Corporation, of Manchester, has been announced as a speakership can-N. H.; the Maine Provision and Cold Storage Company, of Portland, Me.; Holyoke Provision and Cold Storage Company, of

The taking of stock of John P. Squire Co. continued to-night. At the earliest possible moment a statement will be made and sent to the creditors of the company. On Thursday it is likely that the creditors will

Francis Batchelder & Co., dealers in prodthe benefit of creditors. This step was taken because of the contingent liability of the firm on about $70,000 of the paper of John P. Squire & Co. The direct liabilities are about $200,000, with nominal assets in excess of that sum, and consisting chiefly of bills receivable, stock in trade and Capithe assignee, and it is believed that matters will soon be adjusted so that business can

Good Balances at New York. correspondents of the Broadway National Bank of Boston, which closed its doors today as a result of the Squire failure yesterday, are the Chase National Bank, the Western National Bank and the Bank of North America. At the Chase National Bank it was said that the Broadway bank had a small balance. At the Western National it was said the Broadway bank had a comfortable balance, and at the Bank of North America, one of the officials said the balance of the Broadway bank was between $8,000 and $10,000. Nothing will be paid out against these accounts until the affairs of the Broadway bank have been adjusted. The effect of the failure of this bank on New York financial institutions was imperceptible.

HAS BEEN AN ADVANTAGE.

D. P. Erwin Takes an Optimistic

View of the Squires Failure. "The failure of the firm of John Squires & Co., of Boston, has been of distinct advantage all around, even to the firm itself," said D. P. Erwin last night, "for it has been the means of breaking up an Eastern combination which has heretofore refused to buy in the same market with Squires & Co. or to have anything to do with the firm. Four of these firms placed and will continue to buy with us. Not only have these firms quit fighting Squires & Co. but they have come to the rescue of the in harmony with it. Squires & Co. will not go out of business nor will anyone lose anything by its operations in the past, present or future. The assignee has already telegraphed that all shipments on the way to Boston would be paid for and accepted, and those held in the stockyards yesterday were shipped this evening to Boston." In addition to this, Mr. Erwin said a message was received at the Interstate yards yesterday providing for the purchase of the usual amount of stock for the firm to-morrow.

FOR ALLEGED MURDER.

business as usual, the agitation began to Three Ohio Men Arrested for Crime | ceived the support of almost the entire of Six Years Ago.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16 .- James Brant, of | committee. I have not in the slightest de-Chatham, O., and his two sons, Henry Brant, of this city, and Samuel Brant, of Lorain, O., are under arrest on the charge of being implicated in the supposed mur- reason to anticipate, including that of the der of Lyle Cadnum, a farmer, of Medina county, Ohio, in September, 1893. Cadnum and the Brants had adjoining farms in Medina county and there was bad blood between the two families. Quarrels were frequent and Cadnum at one time had one of the Brants arrested for committing an assault upon him. In the summer of 1893 two horses owned by Cadnum were mutilated one night, one of them having his tongue cut out and the other having his tail cut off near the body. The severed tongue was hung on the knob of Cadnum's sistance to the Broadway National Bank. for the Brants and indictments were re-After an investigation, which was not turned by the grand jury. On the night of Cadnum disappeared while going home cided to take no action. The officials of from the house of a neighbor. Not the the bank at once entered into communica- least trace of him has been found from that time to this, unless the Medina authorities have discovered something which

MRS. O'NEIL FREED.

Collapse of Prosecution in the Mon treal-Chicago Fraud Case.

MONTREAL, Dec. 16.-A decision was rendered to-day favorable to Mrs. H. J. O'Neil, of Chicago, who was arrested here some weeks ago on a charge of defrauding her creditors out of many thousands of dollars' worth of goods. Judge Chouquet, before whom the preliminary hearing was proceeding, ruled that the evidence taken by Judge Sicotte, the special commissioner appointed to take evidence of witnesses in the United States, could not be admitted because the commissioner had not given the proper notice to the counsel on both sides and because the stenographers who never certified to the correctness of their notes under oath as required by the Canadian criminal code. Under these circumstances he refused to admit the evidence. The lawyers representing the prosecution said that they were not prepared to ask capital stock had not been impaired in any for the appointment of another commissloner, and as there was no evidence before the court to support the charge, Judge Chouquet acquitted Mrs. O'Neil. The civil actions were also withdrawn and the seizures being removed, Mrs. O'Neil regains possession of the goods and is once more at liberty.

PANIC IN A STORE.

Holiday Illumination Causes a Fire Three People Badly Injured.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16 .- Unlooked for real- to see the national committee make its ism attended the holiday illumination planned for this evening by the Divisionstreet Merchants' Association when the store and stock of Sidney Mandl, president out my report and forward it to Washing- of the association, was destroyed by fire. The store was filled with people at the time first-class headquarters gratuitiously and and a serious panic resulted, many women nent receiver. Just what the outcome will and children being thrown down and trampled on. The most severely injured

> SIDNEY MANDL, proprietor, badly burned and head cut. FREDERICK RINK, clerk in adly burned while attempting to rescue EMILY KNUDSON, saleswoman, face None of the injured will die, although all of them are seriously hurt. In addition to

The fire, which originated by the crossing of two electric wires, caused a total damage of $55,000, the loss being fully pro-

IOWA SENATORSHIP.

Close Contest Between A. B. Cummins and John H. Gear.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 16 .- The supporters of A. B. Cummins's candidacy for paid dollar for dollar and nobody will lose | Webster county, from the speakership race was in Cummins's interest. Both Gear and Cummins have claimed to be beneficiaries of Blake's move, but Blake authorizes the Chaplin. The corporations are: The statement that he is for Cummins for senathat Mahlon Head, of Green county, who didate, will not push his fight, and his retirement will be in the Cummins interests. With forty-one votes necessary to elect a speaker the Gear people claim fifty-one for Mr. De Armond concluded, but twenty faction, claims forty-eight for Eaton for speaker. The hotel lobbles are crowded and the fight has fairly opened. G. CLEVELAND ILL.

The Ex-President Suffering from an Attack of Rheumatism.

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 16.-Ex-Presi- the six days' debate, he said, the House

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.-The New York MR. PAYNE ABANDONS HIS BASIS OF REPRESENTATION PLAN.

> Southerners Will Send the Usual Number of Delegates to the National Convention.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 .- The members of the Republican national committee were received to-day by President McKinley at the White House. There was no speechmaking, the members of the committee simply passing through the room and shaking hands with the President. After the reception the committeemen were grouped in front of the White House and photographed. While arrangements were being made for taking the photograph President McKinley entered his carriage and was driven to the residence of the late Vice President Hobart and escorted Mrs. Hobart to the station, where she took the train for her New Jersey home. The members of the committee returned to the Arlington Hotel and assembled in session. Shortly after the meeting was called to ororders in the Interstate yards yesterday der Mr. Payne, of Wisconsin, made statement as follows: "I ask the committee to honor me with its attention for a few minutes for a statement somewhat personal in its nature. It is both from the public press and correspondence with them, that I have intended to offer and advocate for adoption by the committee of a resolution recommending to the next national Republican convention a change in the basis of representation in subsequent conventions. I some time since gave to the press for publication and discussion the resolution which I had prepared to present to the committee upon the subject. Briefly stated, it proposed to make the national convention which nominates tickets and formulates Republican platforms fairly representative of those who vote for Republican platforms and Repubhave reason to believe that upon its merits, has the support of a large number of this gree changed my conviction as to its justice, nor nave I the slightest doubt as to its expediency. Within a day or two it has encountered opposition which I had no which, as a loyal Republican, I feel bound indulgence, and I have made this stateit was not formally before the committee. convention to deal with. He did not believe bring about such legislation as they fashould maintain its position as an organization to conduct the affairs of the party under the instructions of the convention. I it assumed more, it would be charged with Mr. Hanna's remarks were cheered by the committee. subject was brought forward. the convention was announced as follows: tion board. There was some talk about man, it being explained that it would assemble a few days before the convention meets to make up the preliminary roll of Senator Hanna gave a dinner at the Arlington Hotel to-night to the members of the committee. Covers were spread for and the table and banquet room were artistically decorated with flowers of many varieties. Mr. Payne, of Wisconsin, occupled the seat immediately to the right of the chairman and Mr. Manly, of Maine, the seat on the left. The dinner was private and none of the speeches were given Quakers Want Everything.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 16.-The members of the citizens' committee, whose efforts resulted in the selection of this city have started a movement to have the Republican national committee make this city its headquarters. Many members of the citizens' committee are still at Washington. They are urging that the influence which the President wielded in favor of Philadelphia as the city for the convention is proof that he will be personally gratified headquarters here also. They are emphasizand they are engaging, if the committee will agree to come here, to furnish it with to make every effort to lighten its running

END OF DEBATE.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) in reply to a measure sent him regarding his interview on the House currency bill in which Mr. Gaines stated that his application of the term "Democracy" was being language criticised. Have said that bill is bad in every particular and should be defeated, but have not said that it would hurt the Democratic party or Democracy ought to drive out of the Republican party Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, closed the debate on the Democratic side. He called attention to the fact that only one section of the bill had been read and no op-He declared that it was the opinion of the minority side that the bill was designed to huge, far-reaching and all-pervading bank trust. He had intended to offer an amendment, but the section to He had it read at the clerk's desk. It provided that it should be unlawful for any bank, under its provisions, to combine with any other bank for the purpose of increasing or restricting the coin in circulation, credit or interest. That amendment, Mr. De Armond said, if adopted, might help to prevent the fruition of the scheme in this bill. By this bill the government would isthey operated the power in the interest of themselves and the Republican party. EXCITING AND DRAMATIC.

The scenes attending the close of the debate were exciting and dramatic. When minutes remained before the debate was to close, under the rule. Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, protested against what he assumed to be the purpose of the Republicans to take that time to close the debate. He demanded the regular order Thereupon, Mr. Grosvenor got the floor for five minutes, which he occupied in taunting the Democrats for their evident desire

CHANGE NEXT YEAR the policy which had governed and the country for nearly thirty years. the policy which had governed and guided Mr. Richardson indignantly denied Mr. Grosvernor's assertion of the proposed abandonment of the issue of free silver. He said that if the gentleman from Ohio had followed the debate he must have heard some strong speeches in favor of free silver. He called attention to the fact that but one section of the bill had been read, and charged that the special order, which did not permit the offering of a substitute or a motion to recommit, had been framed for the special purpose of preventing the offering of a free silver substitute. "Does the gentleman desire to offer such a substitute?" asked Mr. Overstreet. "The rule was framed to prevent one from doing so, and the debate has been deliberately conducted with the same end in view," responded Mr. Richardson. The Republicans laughed derisively as

Mr. Richardson went on to characterize Mr. Grosvenor's covert charges as a cheap attempt at political capital waich was beneath the dignity of a great party. He inveighed against the hypocrisy of the other "You tied our hands," said he, "in the beginning. This bill is a bill to establish the gold standard and break down bimetallism forever. The free coinage of

Then Mr. Dalzell (Rep., Pa.) took the floor, and in half a minute the House was in a furore. He pointed out that any Democrat could have demanded the reading of the bill, and, alluding to Mr. Richardson's charge of hypocrisy, he waked the echoes as he said: "I hurl back the charge. You do not dare, he shouted, shaking his finger at the other side, "not one of you dares or space to be covered is about eighty-three would dare if you had the opportunity to offer a free coinage amendment and risk a vote upon it. No gentleman on the other side is so much a leader that he would dare expect to rally his cohorts upon that prop-

SILVERITES RISE EN MASSE. A dozen Democrats jumped to their feet as Mr. Dalzell concluded. Mr. Bailey, Mr. Richardson, Mr. Sulzer of New York, Mr. Williams of Mississippi were all clamoring for recognition, but Mr. Hepburn (Rep., Ia.), who was in the chair, recognized Mr.

The Iowan looked across the aisle when order had been restored. "Before I besaid he, blandly, "I will agree to yield the floor if any gentleman on the other side desires to offer a free coinage Almost half the Democratic side seemed to rise en masse. Mr. Bailey was fore-most. "I ask it," he called. "I ask it!" fied on Christmas morning to find herself "Dozens of us ask the privilege," cried Mr. Williams: "we challenge you for the opportunity.

Rushing down one of the side aisles came Mr. Driggs (Dem., N. Y.), shouting, "I object! I object!" "Does the gentleman want any further evidence?" called Mr. Williams. The confusion was indescribable. Hepburn pounded with his gavel while the scene of discord Mr. Dolliver had aroused. When order was restored Mr. Dolliver yielded to Mr. Bailey; who preferred the request for unanimous consent. "The gentleman from Texas," said Mr. Hepburn from the chair, "well knows that in committee it is not competent to entertain a request to change one order under which the House is operating.

liams, his finger pointing at Mr. Dolliver, while the Democrats cheered. Meantime the hour of 5 o'clock arrived bill to the House without amendment. as a bank, might deposit bonds with the treasury and receive their par value in "Your bluff is called," shouted Mr. Wil-

Thereupon Mr. Overstreet asked unanimous consent that the special order under which the House was operating be so amended as to allow a substitute providing for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 to Instantly Mr. Driggs, of New York, who had not relinquished his position on the the hall also objected. "Objection is made," announced the speaker amid a shrick of Republican The House was then, at 5:05 o'clock, de-clared adjourned until Monday under the terms of the special order.

The Republican "Whip's" Estimate. WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.-The final arrangements were being made to-day for the votes on the financial bill in the House publican members would be present, and those absent would be paired for the bill. It is intimated that about 150 Democrats made to allow a vote on a motion to re- her, there is always a palm to fall back on. commit, with instructions to the currency committee to report an amended bill, if the Democratic members desired this pro-

Mr. Richardson, the Democratic floor leader, says, however, that the proposition is too indefinite, and he will give no intimation of the parliamentary means he will

Landis the Only Indianian to Speak.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.-Representative Landis was the only Indianian who took for the national Republican convention, part in the currency debate while the House in committee was proceeding under the five-minute rule. He made a breezy and effective short talk. Representative Watson had a speech prepared and had time allotted to him yesterday, but was prevented by illness from taking advantage of the opportunity. The vote on the bill will be taken next Monday, immediately after the reading of the journal. Mr. Overstreet said he expected it to receive about thirty majority, all the Republicans and ten to fifteen Democrats voting for it. COLLISION AT CLEVELAND.

Engineer and Fireman Killed, Conductor Fatally Injured.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 16 .- A Cleveland, Akron & Columbus passenger train, running into the city forty minutes late, collided with a switch engine near the State Insane Asylum at 6 o'clock this evening. and as a result two men are dead and one do not recall any interviews which is the is dying. The switch engine was backing coal cars on a side track into the asylum ground and had the right of way. The passenger locomotive struck it just as it had got off the main track and the collision was a side swipe. Both engines were hurled from the rails and landed bottom up in the The coupling pin behind the passenger engine's tender broke and none of the passenger coaches left the track.

In the cab of the switch engine were the engineer, A. C. Sherman; the fireman, Chas. Ehlers, and the conductor, Harry Schultz. They were crushed under the steam. One of Sherman's legs was crushed off. Both of Ehler's legs were cut off Alexis Hospital. Schultz is in the same hospital and will probably die before morn-ing. If he rallies one of his legs will be amputated at the hip. The engineer of the passenger train, George Carson, applied he sand and air brakes when he saw the arms. His fireman, William A. Moore, also umped and escaped with a few bruises. E. . Paisley, the passenger conductor, was thrown against a door and had one of his shoulders dislocated. The passengers did not suffer beyond a severe jolting.

CINCINNATI FIRM ROBBED.

Employes Charged with Filling Up Their Houses with Loot.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16 .- Thomas Haverfield, assistant shipping clerk of Amberg & Bell, wholesalers of toys and notions, was arrested yesterday after detectives found his house full of goods belonging to | man body and so easily digested that many Huesman has not been in the combine long. | + + + + + and the firm says he was used as a tool by Haverfield, but the detectives say that Haverfield and Steinreide have been looting the store for years and that they have evidence against Steinreide as far back as | + ten years. No estimate is given of the losses. The firm expected to promote Haverfield here the first of the year and then |+ transfer Steinreide to an important position in their New York house.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

The Johnson-Fortier and Marconi Systems to Be Used on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 16.-Negotiations have begun for the installation of the Johnson-Fortier system of wireless telegraphy | + in connection with the steamer lines plying daily and nightly between Chicago and Milwaukee. This installation will probably be done in the early part of the summer season and land stations will be set up at Chicago, Kenosha, Waukegan, Racine and | + ess telegraphy to practical test by introducing it in connection with its car fer-ry business across Lake Michigan. The contract with the Marconi people has been closed. The station will be at Frankfort and at a point near Menominee, Mich. The

FOR MEN TO READ.

What Edwin Should Give Angelina for Christmas.

New York Commercial Advertiser.

Men have begun to shop. That is a sure sign that Christmas is near. They hang | + over the jewelry and leather goods counters looking troubled and worried. They look wistfully at the bewildering array of little boxes and bags made of satin and linen and beaded silk. They fumble conscientiously at belt clasps before they decide to buy them and they ask the patient saleswoman to put the lorgnette chain around her neck or to stick the shell comb in her hair, so that they may get an idea of the effect. Sometimes they even venture into the mazy mysteries of neckwear, and more than one prim maiden will be horriowner of a stiff satin stock with a Minerva-

The man who can plunge into a lingerie shop and choose silk petticoats, dainty | + dressing sacques and other frills dear to the heart of all women worth giving presents to is a lucky being. He is sure of pleasing, and he is equally certain that his sisters and cousins and aunts will call his gifts "useful." No woman was ever so surfeited that she could not joyfully make ise of an extra silk skirt or cashmere dressing gown. But les convenances forbid Edwin to send these things to Angelina, which is hard on both of them.

Sofa cushions are another boon to the distracted man in search of an offering for his lady love, his chum's wife, her young sister, his mother and the other friends and relatives of the feminine gender who cause insomnia, economy and much worry on his part at this season.

It is hard to make a man believe that most women, even in this mater-of-fact day, love sweets and that his obligations could be gracefully met by satin boxes of fine sugar plums. He says they are childish and expensive. Well, so are most women. The man who buys silver photograph frames, small, dainty, and what looks to him like useless litle clocks; writing cases currency. To this the speaker replied in or blotting books of soft Russia leather: useful desk calendars in metal or leather frames; fairy-like handkerchiefs, French gloves, roomy boxes of leather or carved wood for odds and ends; card cases or pocketbooks of pigskin or lizard, with handsomely mounted corners, or, better doilies for the housewife; a Turkish tea table, an Oriental lamp for the hall or a right of the chair, shouted, "I object!" tiny bronze bust for the treasure cabinet. Mr. Levy (Dem., N. Y.) from the rear of is sure to be, if not exactly right, certainly not far from it. When he doesn't know that as well eschew silver sewing sets. The girl who sews seriously uses very workmanlike tools, and the girl who perhaps ought to embroider is more apt to play golf these Books are safe in these days of dainty bindings and biographical editions. There daughter has to say about each of his books, which is very snobbish and absurd, and helps out when one's clever husband brings home what Mr. Dooley calls "lith-erary charaackthers" to dinner. ype for puzzled men to see-when he can-Every woman, of every creed, color, age and station, can find place in her house and heart for another palm, and, even if he change his mind after entering the shop and fall before the alluring beauty of potted heather or growing violets or dear, dehim and think him a person of taste and discernment-for every woman likes a man to think that she loves flowers, just as every man wants a woman to think that he is very athletic.

Have Trouble with your Breakfast Dish? Grape=Nuts.

Perfectly Cooked. Ready to Serve. Delicious and Healthful.

"the breakfast cereal cooked five minutes in a half-hearted way will in time weaken the stomach of anything short of "The cells of cereals and many vegetables are tough and hardened membranes within which are inclosed nutrition.

"Now, these cells burst open only when cooked for a long time at a high tempera-

"Any preparation of wheat put into water that is below the boiling point and cooked as mush is usually served remains a pasty, indigestible mass. The cells are tough and unopened. In addition the stomach of a person sensitively constituted refuses to do anything with the pasty mass. It is sent into the second stomach, the duodenum, where in consequence of the closely sealed membranes and the long time of the first process of digestion is tender and terribly scalded by escaping | fermented and soured. As an eminent medical man pertinently states, the stomachs of half the people going about the streets

> "Intestinal dyspepsia is the direct consequence of such feeding."-Good Housekeep-> are about in the condition of an old vine-

Knowledge of these facts and a wide experience in the preparation and use of cereals brought out the product known as Grape-Nuts, manufactured with special reference to having the nitrogenous and starchy parts of the grains of which the food is composed perfectly and scientifically cooked at the factory ready for immediate use and therefore not subject to the manipulations of any cook, good or bad. The grape sugar is shown glistening on the little granules and gives forth a delicate sweetish taste, very palatable. Children and adults obtain fine results from the use of Grape-Nuts Food. It is so perfectly adapted to the wants of the huthe firm. Edward Steinreide and Louis cases are on record of nursing babies be-

Fur Wraps Fur Neckwear

Something that makes a pretty woman look prettier is the right sort of a Christmas Present!

Something pretty to wear is the idea. Furs are all the fad now. They're worn more than ever this season. The fact that we are manufacturing furriers makes it possible for you to select a handsome present without being compelled to spend a large amount of money. We've about 35 swell imported novelties, consisting of which we will close out at exactly half price. We've also cut the prices on our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Cloth Jackets, Tailormade Suits, Silk Waists and Petticoats. We're selling them at the January cut prices, thus giving you an opportunity to buy a useful Christmas present at a moderate outlay.

Fur Jackets and Scarfs, Velour Jackets, Tailor-made Costumes,

> Come to us for the latest, the brightest ideas in Ready-to-wear Garments for the fair sex.

Ladies' Outfitters-Manufacturing Furriers. (We will keep open every night this week.)

Sensible Xmas GiftS

The heart of any housekeeper will leap for joy if she receives the gift of something for the interior decoration of her home. We have many things to offer. For instance:

Pretty Rug

Is considered among the banner presents, because everybody is glad to get one. We have them all sizes, all prices.

India Stools, Tabourettes, Etc.

> Are useful as well as artistic; are inexpensive, and we have them in the different woods-cherry, mahogany, golden oak, white enamel, maple, etc.

Fire Screens and Panels

> We have them, filled or not, just as you desire. We also make them to order to suit your taste. A large variety to choose from.

Fancy Pillows and Pillow Tops

> Nothing lends a more cozy effect to a room these winter days than a few fancy pillows, not to say anything of the pleasing and dainty decoration thus afforded. We make these to order also. All you have to do is tell us what sort of pillow you want and we will make it. We carry a large line all ready made up, too.

As to Other Novelties

All kinds Draperies, Beautiful Fur Rugs, Carpet or Velour Foot Rests, Smaller Size Ingrain Art Squares.

> We're just around the corner. Come and see us.

Schleicher & Martens Co.,

18-22 North Meridian Street.

Too Busy to Write Ads

Come in and see the thousands of beautiful articles in fine JEWELRY,

Precious Stones, Sterling Silver, Cut Glass, Ebony Novelties, etc., at bottom prices for finest quality

16 E. Washington Street.

Open Evenings.

Finest Engraving in City.

dent Grover Cleveland is confined to his conducted a successful and growing business of the past year having been particularly successful, amounting to about $1,000,000. The business will be carried on for the present by in the pending measure would but into law the pending measure would but into law the first class as sign of the firm. Edward Steinreide and Louis and he humorously halled it as a sign of the firm. Edward Steinreide and Louis and he humorously halled it as a sign of the coming regeneration of the party. In cases are on record of nursing bables being fed very successfully on it.

Wickoff, his physician, said that the atsolution on both sides of the House that the enactment of the pending measure would but into law the firm. Edward Steinreide and Louis the cases are on record of nursing bables become the settled conviction on both sides of the House that the enactment of the pending measure would but into law shipping department, were arrested to-day after goods belonging to Amberg & Bell to Co.'s factories in Battle Creek, Mich.